LOS ANGELES WILL BE WAR HARBOR

Pacific Fleet Ordered to Mobilize at San Diego October 31; Atlantic Fleet Will Gather at New York.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Los Angeles is to witness on October 31 the most complete mobilization of the naval fighting forces of the United States ever had in any port of the Pacific coast.

As a test of their preparedness, every ship and auxiliary craft of the coast fleet will be assembled in Los Angeles harbor and on the same date the Atlantic fleet will gather in New York.

Orders for the mobilization were issued today by Secretary of the Navy Meyer. It is stated that the plan for the mobilization of the two fleets is the result of the study of European methods made by the navy head during his recent visit abroad.

Among the ships that will visit Los Angeles are the armored cruisers California, Maryland, South Dakota, West Virginia and Colorado. The supply ship Chester, together with all the torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers now stationed along the Pacific coast, will form part of the mobilization.

Every craft of every kind used in connection with the navy and now on the coast will join the main fleet in Los Angeles harbor. While a safe anchorage for all the vessels may be had at Santa Monica, it is proposed to bring the fleet and auxiliary vessels to anchor within the breakwater of Los Angeles harbor.

This would be the anchorage in actual warfare.

The fleet will probably remain at Los Angeles for nearly two weeks, after which the annual target practice will be held off San Diego. The ships will then sail for the Hawaiian Islands to carry out the mimic attack on Pearl harbor and the other island defenses, which was postponed in order to allow a portion of the fleet to be in San Francisco at the time of the ground-breaking celebration for the Panama-Pacific exposition.

TOPEKA HAS FIFTY JOINTS DECLARES THE SHERIFF

Letter to Governor Stubbs Suggests Kansas Special Agent Be Permitted to Look for Booze Emporiums.

Topeka, Oct. 10.—W. J. Donnuck, sheriff of Cloud county, who bought liquor in Topeka and told his home agents about it and was summoned for an inquisition before the attorney general last week, sprung a surprise for Governor Stubbs today in a letter asserting that there were fifty joints in Topeka.

Donnuck said that William Mullhead, the governor's special agent, who found the joints in Concordia, which started the inquisition, had told Donnuck in the presence of a Topeka man that he (Mullhead) could locate fifty joints in Topeka in twenty-four hours.

"Since Mr. Mullhead is in the business of finding joints in Concordia and other points in the state I would suggest that you have him find the fifty joints in Topeka and then have the attorney general subpoena him and obtain this information which would no doubt be of value to you in your law enforcing campaign.

Returning to Concordia by way of Atchison, coming this way because it was the quickest way home, where I was needed in the trial of a bootlegger that was in progress, I met W. W. Burt in the Union depot and talked with him in the presence of the night depot master. Mr. Burt said that he could find fifty joints in Topeka in less than two hours; that during the old soldiers' reunion he saw an officer coming down a stairway wiping his lips, and Mr. Burt approached the officer and inquired if everything was all right. On being told that it was, he went up the stairway, opened a screen door into a room where he was met by a woman. Mr. Burt told the woman that he would like to have a little nap. She went to the bed, turned back the mattress and procured a bottle of whisky, from which she gave him a drink and received 15 cents in payment thereof.

H. Cook was ordered today to appear personally before the circuit court of appeals in San Francisco, October 17, and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of that body. The order was brought from San Francisco by United States District Attorney Elmer E. Toul, who presented affidavits before the Circuit court of appeals Monday relative to the connection between Hillman, Cook and Batesman and the flood of letters which poured in upon the court of appeals while it was in session in Portland. The affidavits found that the court ordered the three defendants to come south for hearing.

FLOOD OF BIBLES FOR PORTLAND PRISONER

Man Who Stole Testament May Now Read Own Books—Gets Twenty Seven.

Portland, Oct. 10.—Charles Reiff, who says he is a famous circus clown and who was placed in jail as a simple drunk Tuesday night, stole a Bible from a fellow-prisoner and was haled into court next day on a charge of theft.

"Your honor," pleaded Reiff, "I saw the Good Book, and a longing to read it again as I had done when a boy made me take it."

Reiff was sent back to jail and the facts were printed in the local newspapers. Within the twenty-four hours which have since elapsed Reiff has been presented with twenty-seven Bibles.

A heavily veiled woman visited the city jail early yesterday and presented the man with a Bible, besides assuring him of a job when his sentence expired. C. M. Womack, assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, then sent him a handsome copy of the Scriptures.

Then the Bibles came thick and fast. Some were brought by their donors and others came by messengers.
